

Foundational & Advanced Delaware Victim Assistance Academy Faculty Application

Preliminary Applicant Information

Thank you for your interest in joining the volunteer trainers that will make up the Foundational and Advanced Delaware Victim Assistance Academy Faculty! Because we care deeply about delivering foundational and ongoing engaging training to beginning and mid-career victim service providers, we are seeking to expand our pool of trainers. Applicants will be expected to complete a 2-part application process.

All applications (part 1), including the required supplemental documents (resume, training example) must be submitted no later than 11:59pm on Friday, January 31st, 2025. Selected applicants will be advanced to Part 2, which involves a training demonstration and panel interview to ensure a good fit for both the applicant and the existing faculty. Part 2 of this process will take place in early spring of 2025.

What you'll need to complete this application:* your resume, a sample of a recent training, and 10-15 minutes of your time.

For more information about the DVAA, visit:* <https://cjc.delaware.gov/dvaa/>
